So, what is it all about?

This series of creative writing webinars will take children on an imaginary journey to MAD Space, where the year is 3005 and life on earth resembles nothing of what it once was. There are hover cars, teleportals and shopping centres on Mars and Jupiter. There are hotels on top of stars and drive-through cinemas all over The Milky Way too! But there has been something very mysterious happening in MAD Space, where Captain Mad is stationed in Space HQ, awaiting to assemble her team of Madsters, (including you) who will save the universe by building their characters day-by-day and writing the story of their journey to MAD Space, how they saved it and who they met along the way...

Exciting tasks over the 5 weeks will include

- diary writing with a difference!
- detailing events that takes place on your planet,
- creating characters in MAD Space
- testing your plan to save MAD Space when a meteorite is about to crash into Space HQ.
- plan the future of MAD Space....and join a celebratory ceremony on Space HQ!

Places are limited to 25 so get in touch quickly so you don't miss out on the fantastic Space adventure.
