

Some Research Resources for the Clare Museum collection at the Clare Local Studies Centre

A Guide for Adult Learners

Compiled by Cathal McEnery, Museum Volunteer

Introduction

The Clare Local Studies Centre is located in Harmony Row, Ennis. It is a reference Library that is dedicated to providing research material regarding all aspects of the culture and history of County Clare.

The resources listed here are from that collection, and provide an opportunity for further research into objects or topics covered by the museum collection, and are broken down under the relevant themes in the Riches of Clare exhibition.

It is intended for students of all ages and in particular for adults engaged in lifelong learning following a visit to the Clare Museum.

This is not an exhaustive list of research resources, as the collection is being added to on an ongoing basis and this list will be updated over time.
